BREEDERS' CLUB NOT BANKRUPT,

Judge Hoyt Says Amusement Enterprise Cannot Become So Technically,

Concord, N. H., March 4.- The petition of creditors of the New England Breeders' club, which last year built and operated a race track at Salem, N. H., asking that the club be declared insolvent and receiver appointed, was dis-missed on a technicality by Judge Hoyt in the probate court at Exeter. N. H., Saturday. In announcing his decision Judge Hoyt stated that while the chil was incorporated partly for the purpose of improving and importing the breed of horses, it was practically an amuse-ment enterprise, and as such was without the operation of the national bank ruptcy act. This act, he stated, makes no provision whereby a corporation engaged in an amusement enterprise can, either voluntarily or involuntarily beome a bankrupt. After Judge Hoyt's decision had been given, it was announced that some of the creditors would apaly to the United States courts to se cure an opinion on the issue raised by Judge Heyt.
